

From Sunday's sermon to everyday life

A simple guide for reading Scripture and following Jesus together.

Choose a Scripture passage used in Sunday's sermon as the starting point for your LIFE Group discussion. Read it together and use the four questions below to explore God's Word and respond together.

BEFORE YOUR GROUP MEETS

Choose one Scripture passage referenced in Sunday's sermon. Select enough verses to preserve the passage's context, then read it ahead of time. Share the Scripture reference with your group and pray for your time together.

Discovery Questions:

- 1 What does this passage teach us about God?
(His character, attributes, plans, or heart)
- 2 What does this passage teach us about people / humanity?
(Our nature, sins, needs, or potential)
- 3 If this is true, how will I obey it this week?
(Creating a specific, personal "I will" statement)
- 4 Who am I going to share this with?
(Identifying someone in their social circle to pass the story along to)

A SIMPLE 60-MINUTE FLOW

Connect • 10 min | Read Scripture • 5 min | Four questions • 35 min | Pray • 10 min

LEAD WITH CURIOSITY AND CARE

Listen more than you speak. Allow silence, invite quieter voices, and let people pass. Keep discussion grounded in the chosen Scripture and invite people to point to the text. Help each person name a specific "I will" step and someone to share with. Pray together and follow up during the week.
